

Our website uses cookies. By using our website and agreeing to this policy, you consent to our use of cookies in accordance with the terms of this policy.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files which a website may put on your computer or mobile device when you first visit a site or page. The cookie will help the website, or another website, to recognise your device the next time you visit. Web beacons or other similar files can also do the same thing. We use the term "cookies" in this policy to refer to all files that collect information in this way.

Cookies can be used by web servers to identify and track users as they navigate different pages on a website, and to identify users returning to a website.

Cookies may be either "persistent" cookies or "session" cookies. A persistent cookie consists of a text file sent by a web server to a web browser, which will be stored by the browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date (unless deleted by the user before the expiry date). A session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed.

We only use SESSION Cookies on this website

How we use cookies

Cookies do not contain any information that personally identifies you, but personal information that we store about you may be linked, by us, to the information stored in and obtained from cookies.

We may use the information we obtain from your use of our cookies for the following purposes:

- to recognise your computer when you visit our website;
- to improve the website's usability;
- to analyse the use of our website;
- in the administration of this website;

Third Party Cookies

We do not allow third parties to send cookies or collect information on our website with the exception of Google Analytics which we use for our own purposes only.

Google Analytics

We do use Google Analytics to analyse the use of this website. Google Analytics generates statistical and other information about website use by means of cookies, which are stored on users' computers. The information generated relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of the website.

Google will store this information. Google's privacy policy is available at:

<http://www.google.com/privacypolicy.html>.

Can a website user block cookies?

As we've explained above, cookies help you to get the most out of our websites. However, if you do wish to disable our cookies then please do so.

Please remember that if you do choose to disable cookies, you may find that certain sections of our website do not work properly
